I am the Spirit of East Bank High School. I was born in 1912 as Cabin Creek District High School and have faithfully served the patrons of the Cabin Creek Area for forty-four years.

I have come to salute the graduating class of 1956, and share with them the wonderful memories of my life until now.

My first graduating class consisted of three members in 1915. There were four teachers to instruct thirty-five students.

My, how I have grown! The present graduating class consists of two hundred and thirty-six members. In my middle age I am bulging at my seams with a faculty of thirty-four members and an enrollment of one thousand nine students. I hate to boast, but after all I am the seventh largest high school in the state.

My heart swells with pride when I think of my graduates who have distinguished themselves in all phases of life throughout the world.

On each page of your annual, you will find recorded some memories of my past life, which I wish to share with you.

Though the events of my past have been inspiring and rewarding, I look forward with faith, hope, and trust in the men and women I shall meet in the future.

Since 1924, I have had the excellent guidance of Dr. Dana R. Ervin. During his administration more than five thousand students have been graduated.

As I go to press, I have just received one of the highest athletic honors in the state, that of the Class A Basketball Championship.

It is with great pleasure that I dedicate this, the 1956 Kanawhan, to Mr. Williams, Mr. Butta, Mr. Spelock and the Class A Champions of West Virginia!

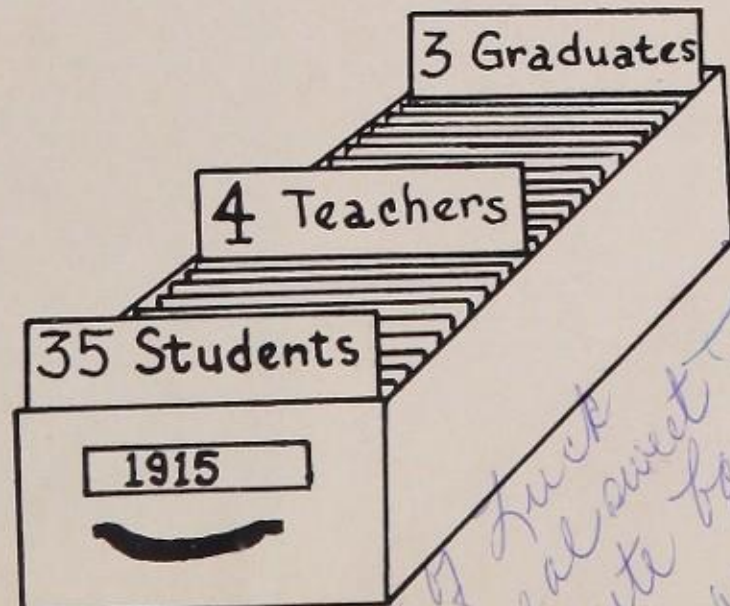

Best of luck
 to a very nice
 guy may you get everything of heaven
 "Heaven"

Best of Everything to you in the future. Hope be nice boy and along with it you
 a nice personality

Class Song

(Tune to: "It's Almost Tomorrow")

Dear East Bank we're leaving, the morrow is near,
Our parting brings showers of sadness, I fear,
Your halls won't be ringing with laughter of ours,
But I know tomorrow, our love will be yours.

CHORUS

It's almost tomorrow, we bid you adieu,
Your memories will linger, for our love is still true,

We'll love you forever, our hearts will remain,
And hope some day East Bank High,
We'll meet here again.

It's almost tomorrow, the hour is near,
Fond moments and memories, bring comfort and cheer,
We'll love you forever 'til stars cease to shine,
Your service and blessing have all been divine.

"A Dream"

When we entered East Bank High,
How very strange it seemed
That all our doubts and fears could die;
And we would build a dream.

We did not think we'd ever find
Our way from room to room,
But everyone was very kind
And vanished all our gloom.

Our junior year was full of glee,
Laughter, fun and all the rest;
And filled with confidence were we;
We felt our school was the very best.

Then we started our senior year,
There our dream began to grow;
And, when we knew graduation was near,
Our hearts began to glow.

Our dream, at last, is now so near,
And we feel frightened and alone;
Again we're filled with doubts and fear,
Because we know we're on our own.

But soon our fears and doubts will flee;
And, if fate does her part,
Our dream will become a reality
And live forever in our heart.

ACTIVITIES

1956

Today there are fifty classes with an enrollment of thirty-five or more students.

Student Congress

The student co-government association was established in the spring of 1938 by the following members of one of the senior social studies classes: William Pryor, Nancy Williams and Fred Wise. The first student council, composed of class officers of the sophomore, junior and senior classes, elected William Pryor as President, Fred Wise as Vice-President and Nancy Williams as Secretary-Treasurer.

The first project was to acquaint the incoming sophomores with the course of study and activities of the senior high school. A letter was sent by the student council to the ninth grade class in each junior high school in the area. From this small beginning developed the annual Junior High Day when the members of the ninth grade classes are transported to the senior high school for a day of orientation.

The present student co-government association organization, with its student congress, class states and home room counties, an outgrowth of the American Legion Boys' and Girls' States, was probably the first one in the United States to be based on national, state and county government.

Band

This year of 1955-56, like all others, again brought the spotlight to the Pioneer Band. It participated in many occasions both in and out of school. As usual they presented pre-game and half-time maneuvers for all football games at home and away, and played during "pep" assemblies.

The first outside activity of the Pioneer Bandmen was the North-South Pigskin Pageant, a sparkling night time parade in Charleston, to announce the opening of the football season. The next important engagement was the Majorette Festival, where they provided music for the majorettes and won several honors. The Band held its annual Outdoor "Pop" Concert on Calvert Field in May.

The Pioneer Band presented its annual variety show, which was entitled, "Pioneers On Parade." They presented a Spring Concert, participated in both the County and State Band Festivals, and provided music for the Commencement program.

Among the Bands other outside activities was the annual Safety Day Parade and Celebration held in Montgomery each year. The Band also accompanied Miss West Virginia in singing the Star Spangled Banner.

All in all the year was another outstanding one for the Pioneer Band.
